

Finale: Music Makers

The curtain closes at the end of the play and applause begins. In twenty seconds the curtain opens again. The actor-singers then walk forward together to bow but also end the play with a song.

This musical score is for the finale of a play. It features a vocal ensemble and a full orchestra. The vocalists (Soprano, Baritone, Tenor, Mezzo-soprano, and Choir) all sing the word "Oh" in the final measure. The instrumental parts include Piano, Violin I, Violoncello, Viola, Clarinet in Eb, Bassoon, Trumpet in Bb, Drums, and Drum Kit. The score is written in 3/4 time and includes various musical notations such as triplets, slurs, and dynamic markings.

Vocalists: Soprano, Baritone, Tenor, Mezzo-soprano, Choir. All sing "Oh" in the final measure.

Instrumental Parts: Piano, Violin I, Violoncello, Viola, Clarinet in Eb, Bassoon, Trumpet in Bb, Drums, Drum Kit.

They found a woman on the street suffering and bitter but she knew

The musical score for page 6, measures 22-25, is presented below. The score is in 3/4 time and features a choir and piano accompaniment. The lyrics are: "They found a woman on the street suffering and bitter but she knew". The piano part consists of a steady eighth-note accompaniment. The strings (Violin I, Violoncello, Viola) play a similar eighth-note pattern. The woodwinds (Clarinet in Eb, Bassoon) and trumpet (Trumpet in Bb) play a melodic line that mirrors the choir's melody.
